Thanks Kristen, the information below is helpful. I had a chance to talk with Eric prior to his call with Richard, and I have a meeting with Sherry this morning to discuss the site.

Hi Dee,

Larry and I just spoke with Richard. This call has reengaged Eric in the project. The action item from this discussion is:

- Richard suggesting a pre-May 26th planning call to Eric. The proposed call is April 25th at 11am. Proposed Attendees are- Eric Olson, Richard Dubey, Tribal Staff, EPA Staff.

Content- Candid Conversation about EPA/ Tribe issues and ongoing consultation, purpose and goal of state meeting

Richards Recap with Eric

- [REDACTED] Eric has been intestinally left out and not aware of status of parallel scope of work
- [REDACTED] Eric did meet with Bob in prep for call- Bob thinks all is well
- [REDACTED] EPA had concern with not getting data from State Consultant
- [REDACTED] Bob reports frustration relying on REI to do work, product not good.
- [REDACTED] Eric Olson Reports proposed May 26th Meeting location was in dispute- Reportedly- Kozaks didn't want Tribal location, Tribe didn't want State DNR location
- [REDACTED] Eric was not invited to May 26th meeting and Eric and State have disagreement about jurisdiction- not inviting Eric is way for EPA to avoid dispute
- [REDACTED] Eric says EPA is trying hard to cooperate
- [REDACTED] Eric references Lack of aggressive EPA leadership
- [REDACTED] Richard relays to Eric that he is not comfortable advising client to attend May 26th meeting-

Cost Recovery

- [REDACTED] Kristen asked about cost recovery using Tribal Code to recover costs from Federal Trust Lust Fund in order to do the work ourselves- Richard suggests including process of submission of Tribal Costs to April call agenda
- [REDACTED] Larry prefers to find funds to do work ourselves and not rely on State

Hi Dee and Eric,

Richard spoke with Eric. He has offered a call tomorrow at 1 or 2.

Do you have availability tomorrow?

Kristen
